

sigi OSAGIE

S P E A K E R P R O F I L E

Sigi Osagie is a business adviser, speaker, coach and writer. He helps organisations and individuals improve their effectiveness and performance to accomplish their goals.

Sigi has extensive leadership experience across most Operations and Supply Chain areas, having previously held senior executive and board roles with several blue-chip multinationals and SMEs.

Sigi is a sought-after contributor to industry forums. He writes and speaks frequently on leadership, organisational and personal effectiveness; and procurement & supply chain management. He was on the advisory board for “The Logistics & Supply Chain Forum”; a panel member of the Logistics Europe Roundtable “The Challenge of Global Sourcing”; and a member of Logistics Europe “Supply Chain Vision Group”. He has written numerous features and opinion pieces for several publications, and is the author of the highly acclaimed book, Procurement Mojo.

Over his wide-ranging career, Sigi has delivered talks and presentations to varied audiences in several countries in Europe, Latin America, Africa and the Asia-Pacific region, including keynote speeches for CIPS.

Key Topics

Sigi originally arrived in the UK as an African immigrant with holes in his shoes, penniless and no address book. Yet just fourteen years later he was a global director in a FTSE250 blue-chip multinational. Drawing on insights from his atypical life journey and career success, he inspires audiences with energy and passion, delivering powerful motivational messages that also imbibe his experience driving change in organisations and helping individuals achieve radical transformations. Sigi’s key speaking topics include;

Leadership and Organisational Effectiveness

- Importance of effective leadership in organisations, and how it makes or breaks long-term organisational capability
- How organisations can improve leadership effectiveness to drive performance

Procurement & Supply Chain Management

- Enhancing Procurement effectiveness and building the Procurement brand
- Building supply chain management capability
- Global supply chain development

Change Management

- Driving successful change in organisations to deliver sustainable results
- Why 60% to 80% of change programmes fail to deliver the expected benefits, and how to join the successful 20% to 40%!

Personal Effectiveness, Growth and Transformation

- Criticality of 'soft skills' and importance over technical knowledge
- Improving effectiveness as individuals, and the benefits to professional and personal life
- Expanding personal capabilities to fulfil our dreams and desires

Career Planning, Management and Growth

- Linking careers to life goals
- Planning career directions proactively
- Taking robust approaches to achieving fulfilment and overall career success

Africa – A story of untapped potential

- An immigrant's tale – from Africa to kitchen porter to FTSE250 director!

"Great presentation at the University of Hertfordshire Business School. I thought it was excellent! A very informative event."

David Morgan – Hewlett Packard

"An impassioned speaker! Will inspire people to perform to their full potential."

Mark Slater – Associated Procurement Ltd.

"Very good style with lots of humorous yet poignant sharing of experiences."

Helena Holliday – Chartered Institute of Purchasing & Supply (CIPS) Beds. & Herts. UK

"Very inspirational, captivating and interesting!"

Zakia Durrani – London Borough of Brent Council

"It was interactive, not another dull presentation. Good to share personal experiences. Motivational! Thank you!"

Pavlina Fox – GlaxoSmithKline

"Excellent speaker! Very useful and informative content... very much in line for the Hilton team."

Paul Farrow – Hilton Worldwide

"Everyone should have a Sigi in their cupboard!"

Sonia Fatkin – Sunpower Yoga, Oxfordshire

BOOK SIGI TODAY!

To book Sigi to speak at your event, please contact;

- Press team on: +44 (0)1603 743 363; info@mediajems.co.uk, OR
- E-mail: info@epgsolutions.co.uk

www.sigiosagie.com